Adjacent Realities

30 October 2015-29 January 2016

Private View

Thursday 29 October, 7-9pm

Artist and curator Catharina Bond has invited artists living and working in Austria and the UK to explore, question and comment on the idea of the 'real' in a world characterised by constant transformation and virtual parallels. Their responses, which incorporate a wide variety of artistic practices, including performance, sculpture, video and photography, present a varied range of perspectives and insights into this theme.
