

THERIP

The Higher Education Network for Research and Information in Psychoanalysis

Is Dialogue Possible? An International Conference

THERIP aims to provide a forum for discussion between different schools in the fragmented world of psychoanalysis. At this conference we will explore whether the competing tendencies within psychoanalysis are capable of fruitful dialogue. And, beyond psychoanalysis, how can we think about what is successful dialogue between disciplines and groups?

Venue: Central London

Friday evening, 26th July, 2013 (inc. wine reception)

Ricardo Bernardi (Uruguay), George Hogenson (US),
Deborah Luepnitz (US), Werner Prall (Germany & UK)
Join the online discussion now, at www.therip.org.uk

Saturday, 27th, all day: speakers as above plus

Luke Thurston (Dialogue, Narrative & the Demonic)
John Heaton (The Trouble with Frameworks: Wittgenstein & Psychoanalysis)
Bernard Burgoyne (Styles of Scientific Method)
Claire Pajaczkowska (Tacit Knowledge)
David Henderson (Freud & Jung: The Creation of the Psychoanalytic Universe)
Lucia Corti, Audrey Cantlie & Julia Borossa (Panel on Global Psychoanalysis)

Early bird fee: £75 (Concessions & THERIP members £60) before April 30th

Please make cheques payable to THERIP and send to:

A Cantlie, 5, Upper Wimpole Street, London W1G 6BP